CAEK

A black and white manga-style illustration. A girl with a mechanical head, featuring a large 'X' on the forehead and a small antenna, looks forward with a serious expression. She has long, thin arms. A small, boxy robot with a single eye and a propeller on its head sits on her chest. The background is filled with radiating lines and floating mechanical parts like gears and a camera. Two speech bubbles are present: one on the right from the girl and one on the bottom left from an unseen character.
